

Modern Slavery Statement

Introduction

CJ Medical Limited (the Company 'we', 'our') is committed to preventing slavery violations in its supply chain, and its products in line with section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. We are committed to conducting business with suppliers who adhere to high ethical standards and comply with laws and regulations applicable to their businesses including human trafficking and slavery.

Organisation

CJ Medical Ltd are a Marketeer and distributor of medical devices that are used in a broad range of medical specialities. As Distributors, we are the final step of the supply chain prior to these products reaching the end user.

Risk and Compliance

We are committed to acting ethically and in compliance with all applicable laws. We support our commitment through a dedicated Compliance Officer who operates a tailor-made compliance program that actively supports our culture of integrity and to identify and prevent violations of law, regulations, and company policies by:

- Identify and action potential risks in our supply chain.
- Monitor potential risks in our supply chain.
- Reduce the risk of slavery occurring in our supply chain.
- External audit of our suppliers.
- Evaluating the slavery risks of each new supplier.
- Providing an annual risk profile for our key suppliers.
- Reviewing on a regular basis all aspects of the supply chain based on supply chain mapping.

Signed on behalf of CJ Medical Limited

Louise Reynolds

Louise Reynolds
Solicitor, Director Legal